Delta Community Credit Union Donates More than $650,000 In 2013

Georgia's Largest Credit Union Fosters Growth and Prosperity in Metro Atlanta Communities through Community Giving and Service

ATLANTA (Feb. 10, 2014) – Delta Community Credit Union (www.deltacommunitycu.com), Georgia's largest credit union, continued its community involvement efforts in 2013 by investing more than $650,000 to foster growth and prosperity in the communities it serves. Raising funds for Children's Healthcare of Atlanta®, Delta Community's Philanthropic Fund, metro area chamber of commerce organizations, high schools and other non-profits, Delta Community contributed financial donations, as well as support, through programs that focus on the specific needs of the communities it serves.

"In 2013, Delta Community raised more than $650,000 through Atlanta fundraising initiatives, including supporting numerous metro Atlanta non-profit organizations through Delta Community's new Philanthropic Fund. In 2014, we look forward to that same level of engagement." explains Jai Rogers, vice president of business and community development of Delta Community.

To assist the physical and financial education of young people and families, Delta Community's Philanthropic Fund currently supports 15 non-profit organizations and will hold a call for grant submissions in the summer of 2014. Through this grant program, Delta Community will support organizations whose purpose is to help families manage their household finances and improve the physical and financial well-being of young people, including science, technology, engineering and math programs (S.T.E.M.), fiscal management, youth development and more.

About Delta Community Credit Union
Delta Community Credit Union is Georgia's largest credit union serving over 290,000 members. It was founded in 1940 and today serves the entire metro Atlanta area, including residents of the 11 surrounding counties and employees of top businesses, such as Delta Air Lines, Chick-fil-A, UPS and RaceTrac. Delta Community is a state-chartered credit union organized under the Georgia Department of Banking and Finance, and its deposit accounts are federally insured through the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund. It chooses to operate as a not-for-profit credit union so it can give back earnings to its members and their local communities.

Unlike a for-profit bank, Delta Community is owned by its members, not individual or institutional investors. Customers become member-owners when they open and maintain an account.
