Password and Security

I agree that I am strictly responsible for establishing and maintaining procedures to safeguard against unauthorized Entries using my password, user name or other applicable security measures. I agree not to give or make available my password, user name, or other applicable security measures, which includes means to access the A2A service, to any unauthorized individuals. Subject to applicable law and regulations, I know that I am responsible for all actions, including Entries that I authorize using the A2A service.

If I permit any other person or third party to use the A2A service or my password, user name or other applicable security measures, subject to applicable law and regulations, I am responsible for any transactions they initiate using the A2A service. If I believe or suspect that my password, user name or other means to access the A2A service has been lost or stolen or that someone has used, or may attempt to use, the A2A service without my consent, I must notify the Credit Union at once by calling 800-544-3328 or

Subject to applicable law and regulations, the occurrence of unauthorized access will not affect any funds transfers made in good faith by Credit Union prior to receipt of such notification and within a reasonable time period to prevent unauthorized funds transfers.

I acknowledge that the purpose of the security procedures described above is for verification of authenticity and not to detect an error in the transmission or content of an Entry. No security procedure for the detection of any such error has been agreed upon between me and the Credit Union.

Verification of Identity and Account Ownership

After agreeing to this Agreement and providing any additional information requested, I may enroll Third Party Accounts in the A2A service. I agree to provide true, accurate, current and complete information about me and my Third Party Accounts and I agree to not misrepresent my identity or any of my account information.

I hereby authorize the Credit Union to verify my Third Party Accounts through the use of any verification process it deems necessary at any time, including, without limitation, a trial transfer, in which one or more low value payments will be credited to the Third Party Account. In the event the Credit Union does initiate such a trial transfer, I may then be asked by the Credit Union to enter the amount of each transfer made into such Third Party Account into the A2A service within ten (10) calendar days of setting up my Third Party Account.

Once the Credit Union deems its verification processes to be successful, each verified Third Party Account will become a Registered Account.

Authorization to Complete Funds Transfer

By logging into the Credit Union's homebanking service at www.deltacommunitycu.com with my user name, password and any other security measures to request an Entry through the A2A service, I authorize the Credit Union, including its employees, agents and service providers, to initiate electronic debits and credits to and from my added Credit Union account and Registered Account in order to process the requested Entry. I also authorize the Credit Union to initiate electronic debits or credits to or from such Credit Union account or Registered Account in order to correct any error in a previous Entry or in the event that the Credit Union cannot complete a requested Entry. This authorization shall remain in place until I cancel the A2A service and the Credit Union has had a reasonable time to act upon my cancellation request.

In the event of an outstanding error or a transaction that has been returned (such as described below), I agree that the Credit Union retains the right to initiate Entries, even after my cancellation request, for a reasonable amount of time until the error has been corrected. If subsequent to the Credit Union's completion of an Entry, the funds transfer to or from the added Credit Union account or Registered Account to fund the transfer is not processed or is returned by the financial institution holding a Registered Account for any reason, I authorize the Credit Union to debit any account of mine to cover the transfer amount, including but not limited to any other Credit Union account or Registered Account that I have added to the A2A service, regardless of whether the Credit Union account or Registered Account was part of the Entry.

I represent to the Credit Union that I am the owner of all of the Credit Union account(s) and the Registered Account(s) added to the A2A service and have all necessary authority and rights to register for the A2A service and to initiate an electronic funds transfer to and from such Credit Union accounts and Registered Accounts. I also represent that I am an individual consumer, and that such Credit Union accounts and Registered Accounts are held and used by me solely for personal, family or household purposes, and are not held or used in connection with any business enterprise. The Credit Union will ordinarily use ACH Network in order to initiate the Entries to and from my added Credit Union accounts and Registered Accounts to process an Entry. The Credit Union may use other methods to process an Entry, including a book transfer or wire transfer.

The Credit Union shall have no liability to me by reason of the rejection of any such Entry or the fact that such notice is not given at an earlier time than that provided for herein.

Reliance on My Instructions

The Credit Union is not responsible for detecting any errors in an Entry that I request through the A2A service. I am responsible for the content of any Entry, and the Credit Union may rely upon the information I provide when processing the Entry.
