

Business Deposit Account Application - Limited Liability Company (LLC)

The limited liability company (LLC) is a relatively new business ownership structure that combines what some consider the best features of a corporation and a partnership. It gives small business owners corporate-style protection from personal liability while retaining the pass-through income tax treatment enjoyed by sole proprietors and partnerships. In most states, the only formal legal step required to create an LLC is to prepare and file the LLC's articles of organization with your state's secretary's office (in some states, this organizational document is called a "certificate of organization" or a "certificate of formation"). The Operating Agreement of an LLC is a vital document because it determines and defines the rights of the members and/or managers. LLC members are the owners of the LLC much as shareholders are the owners of a corporation or the partners of a partnership.

Important Account Opening Information

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account.

What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

The undersigned authorizes the Credit Union to investigate credit and employment history and obtain reports from consumer reporting agency(ies) on them as individuals to determine eligibility for a business deposit product. Except as otherwise provided by law or other documents, each of the undersigned is authorized to make withdrawals from the account(s). The undersigned personally and as, or on behalf of, the account owner(s) agree to the by-laws of the Credit Union, including any requirement to pay a membership or entrance fee, and agree to the terms of, and will receive copy(ies) of, this document and the following:

- Business Membership & Account Agreement
- Privacy & Opt Out Notification
- Electronic Fund Transfers: Your Rights & Responsibilities
- Business Deposit Account Terms & Conditions
- Limits & Fees Disclosure
- Funds Availability Disclosure
- Business Services Wire Transfer Service Agreement & Disclosure
- Online Account Protection Notification
