April Philanthropic Fund Grant Awards

Delta Community leaders and employees with April grant award recipients.

Delta Community's 2015 Philanthropic Fund grants continued in April, with three organizations receiving awards:

- Our House, a childcare and support center for homeless families in Atlanta, was awarded a $4,000 grant.
- United Methodist Church Children's Home of Northern Georgia, an organization working to heal children, unite families and change lives, received a $2,000 grant.
- Clarkston Community Center, a gathering place for art, education, recreation and the community building needs of low-income individuals and families in Clarkston, GA, was awarded a $1,000 grant.

Delta Community Awards HBCU Scholarship

In partnership with Atlanta radio station KISS 104.1, and in celebration of our 75th Anniversary, Delta Community will be awarding $7,500 in scholarships to students attending a Historically Black College and University (HBCU) in Georgia. Throughout 2015, four scholarships worth $1,875 will be awarded.

2016 Philanthropic Fund Application Period

Delta Community will begin taking applications on May 1, 2015, for the 2016 Philanthropic Fund grant awards. This fund provides financial support to registered 501(c)(3) non-profit organizations which align with our mission of helping families manage household finances and improving the physical and financial well-being of young people.

To submit an application for a 2016 award, interested organizations can review the Philanthropic Fund grant guidelines on our website at DeltaCommunityCU.com/PhilanthropicFund. Applications must be received by 5 p.m. on June 30, 2015.

Protect Your Personal Information On Social Media

If you mistakenly post sensitive financial information on social media, delete the post as soon as you can. Then, contact Delta Community so we can help prevent any fraudulent activity on your account.

If you view check images or statements while logged into Pinterest and then click on the Pinterest browser button within your toolbar, you risk “pinning” your check image to your Pinterest account. Should this occur, delete the ‘pin’ immediately and contact Delta Community. You can also contact the social media site’s helpdesk and request that the post be removed.

Visit our security page for more fraud protection tips.
